Autumn in the Smokies
Asheville, North Carolina
October 15-17, 2010

The six Districts - Kentucky-West Virginia, Capital-Virginia, Maryland-South Delaware, Tennessee, North Carolina East and North Carolina West which make up the Mid Atlantic Region will meet at the Crowne Plaza Resort in Asheville for a Parallel District Conference.

The weekend will be filled with workshops, training, fellowship, and district meetings. It will be a chance to learn more about "Bringing Out The Best In Kids".

Optimist International President Danny Rodgers and First Lady Jill will be there and are looking forward to meeting you.

There will be tours available (Biltmore House, Biltmore Village Shops, etc.) or you can explore Asheville and the surrounding area on your own.

Hotel room rate is $109.00 plus taxes per night. Rate will apply three days before conference as well as three days after conference. This is a great opportunity to make a long weekend or a mini fall vacation during peak time in the Smokies.

Plan on attending - share your knowledge with other Optimists - meet and leave with new friendships that you have made.
